Saint's Alive...

ANGER: WHOSE FAULT IS IT?

When I get angry, who do I blame? Is it my spouse's fault or my children's fault?

Is it my parents or my in-law's fault. Is it that contrary neighbor's fault? Is it that friend who just doesn't understand me? Is it the government's fault? NO! It's not the fault of any of those mentioned. Well, isn't there just someone I can blame for my anger?

The finger of accusation must be pointed inward. NO ONE has the power to make us angry. If we get angry, It's because we have made the deliberate choice to make that kind of response to what is happening.

When situations and troubles arise that push us to the point of anger, then God's Word has given us the right way to respond. Ephesians 4:31, 32 says, "Let ALL bitterness, and wrath, and ANGER, and clamor and evil speaking, be PUT AWAY from you, with all malice. AND BE YE kind one to another, TENDER-HEARTED, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake HATH FORGIVEN YOU. You can go through life choosing to be angry or forgiving. IT'S YOUR CHOICE!
